

Clarence Estate

ACCOMMODATION PRICING INFORMATION

This information applies to new residents entering Clarence Estate from 1 July 2024.

Built in 2002, Clarence Estate is a leading residential and community aged care provider in the Great Southern region. As well as a superior standard of accommodation, our residents have access to common lounge, sitting, meals and kitchen areas, as well as internal courtyards. Clarence Estate's Sister Julie House has been specifically designed as an enabling environment that encourages maximum independence and participation for people with dementia, and includes an outdoor sensory garden. Pensioners are welcome at Clarence Estate.

We provide a range of services for our residents, including:

- 24-hour care by registered nurses
- On-site Speech Pathologist, Dietitian, Physiotherapist and Occupational Therapists
- Specialist palliative care
- Dementia support
- Respite care
- Meals prepared on site in our hotel-standard kitchen.

HOW MUCH WILL MY ACCOMMODATION AT CLARENCE ESTATE COST?

The Government will pay an accommodation supplement for residents who are assessed as eligible. Eligibility is determined through a combined assets and income assessment. Depending on your financial circumstances, the Government may pay either all, part or none of your accommodation cost.

If you are assessed as eligible for the maximum accommodation supplement, you will not be charged any additional amount for your accommodation. If you are eligible for a partial accommodation supplement, you will only be charged the difference between the supplement amount and the maximum supplement for Clarence Estate. If you are assessed as not eligible, the Government will not contribute to the cost of your accommodation. Please note that the Government does not subsidise extra service fees.

ACCOMMODATION PAYMENT OPTIONS

Special Services and Premium Services rooms at Clarence Estate are offered on an extra service basis, while the dementia care rooms in Sister Julie House are not. There are three payment options to choose from:

1. Refundable accommodation deposit (paid as a lump sum)
2. Daily accommodation payment (paid periodically, eg monthly)
3. Combination of refundable accommodation deposit and daily payment.

The fees for each room type are listed overleaf.

Please contact Clarence Estate's Executive Manager on (08) 9841 5999 for further information.
